BIOGRAPHY OF THE LATE
PHARM RICHARD ASANTE

EARLY LIFE AND EDUCATION

The late Richard Asante was born in Accra on Tuesday, 27th June, 1978 to Opanyin Kofi Safo-Asante of the Kwahu-Mpraeso Asona family and Madam Felicia Asor Sasu of the Kwahu-Mpraeso Aduana family, both of blessed memory. He was the fifth child among six siblings of his parents and the eleventh of his father. Richard's early childhood development started at Adabraka, a suburb in Accra up to age 5, and continued at Taifa, a suburb of Accra after his parents moved to settle at Taifa. The late Pharm Richard Asante's basic education therefore began at the New Star Preparatory School at Taifa in Accra from 1983 to 1989. After a successful completion of primary education, he was taken to City Business College (CIBUSCO) where he completed the 3 years course.

Thereafter, courtesy his senior brother, Pharm Samuel Asante-Boateng, he entered the Christian Methodist Secondary School through a successful late entrance examination for his secondary education from 1992 to 1995, where he wrote the General Certificate of Education Ordinary level (G.C.E 'O'level). By dint of his studious lifestyle he was able to qualify to the next level on the academic ladder; and thus, had his 6th form education at the then Accra Polytechnic, now Accra Technical University from 1995 to 1997. His usual wonderful performance gained him admission into Abetifi Training College where he did his Teachers Cert 'A'. Richard Asante exhibited his prowess one more time and successfully completed his teacher training in the year 2000.

As a trained teacher, Richard was posted to teach at the then Kpobikorpe M/A primary, now Kpobikorpe M/A Basic School. An account of him indicated that though his engagement was very brief at his station, he was an inspiring teacher who left an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of all he came into contact with, both casually and intensely. During the second year of his teaching profession, he was encouraged by his senior brother, Pharm Asante-Boateng to take the Senior High School certificate examination and he obliged. He came out with remarkable performance and filed an application to offer Medicine at the Medical school at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST). The late Pharm Richard was rather offered a course in pharmacy instead of his choice for medicine. In 2002, Richard Asante was offered the Pharmacy course at KNUST where he read B.Pharm (Hons) and completed in the year 2006.

Mr. Asante, did not end his educational journey there, he took it further and obtained Master's degree in Master of Arts in Human Resource Development at the University of Cape Coast in the year 2012.

Pharm Asante took another second degree and obtained Master of Science in Logistics and Supply Chain Management at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology in 2016.

Pharm Richard Asante wanted to crown his remarkable academic pursuit with the top-up program at the University of Ghana to earn Doctor of Pharmacy but he gave up the ghost in the latter part of his second year when he was doing his clinical rotation at the GPHA Hospital, Takoradi.

WORK LIFE

Pharm Richard Asante started his cooperate life at the Pharmacy Council of Ghana in 2006 as a national Service personnel (intern) and wrote his professional qualifying examination in 2007, passed and was registered as a pharmacist with a registration number PA 2413. He was employed by the pharmacy council after his internship, served for a while and was promoted to the position of Deputy Regional Manager in Sekondi- Takoradi from 2008 to 2020; for the council could not let go such a rare talent. As a Deputy Regional Manager, he served for over twelve years and was subsequently promoted to the substantive position of Regional Manager in 2020. Pharm Richard Asante was active in service and delivered his duties in various capacities up until his painful demise on 23rd March 2024. He was a member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Ghana and the CEO of other businesses such as Med-Pal Chemist Ltd. and Asante-Rich Enterprise. Being a C.E.O, the late Richard Asante travelled to many countries including but not limited to India and Israel among others where he liaised with foreign counterparts to grow his businesses and to contribute his quota to the economic growth of his beloved country, Ghana. He also served as a board member at GA Rural Bank from June, 2013 to October 2016.

MARITAL LIFE

Pharm Richard Asante was a real family man. In 2009, he tied the knot with his beloved wife, Mrs. Mercy Konadu-Asante and they were blessed with four wonderful children (1 Girl and 3 strong Boys). Mr. Asante constantly made time with his family despite all the stress from hard work and his numerous travels until his demise.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

Richard was baptized at an early age into the Presbyterian church of Ghana. For many years, he continued regular worship at the PCG, Ramseyer Congregation, Taifa from where he received the confirmation to signify his acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior and became a full communicant as well. He was a devoted Christian and worshipped with PCG Ramseyer Congregation, Taifa. He relocated to his residence at Royal City, Amasaman in 2016 and transferred his membership to his current congregation, PCG, Grace Family Aborkope, a suburb of Accra. At his new congregation, he diligently served the church in every possible way until his sad exit unto glory.

CHARACTER

Pharm Richard Asante, notwithstanding his unexpected departure at such a period in his life, impacted his family, friends and even the distant person. In fact, his life positively influenced all who came into contact with him.

It was a characteristic of Richard to help even those he knew would waste his resource. He was peaceful and a principled individual. He sought after education for all his family members and will always encourage you to take your education seriously as he understood the benefits of education in our ever racing world system. Mr. Asante will forever be remembered by all and sundry.

He never stopped his good works until his last breath on the 23rd Day of March, 2024 at the International Maritime Hospital, Tema Community 3. Indeed, the Asante family has really lost a gem.

CONCLUSION

As Paul wrote in His second epistle to Timothy, chapter 4 and verses 7 and 8, we are of the firm belief that “You have fought the good fight, you have finished the race, you have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for you the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to you on that day, and not to you only but also to all who have loved His appearing”.

As we lay the late Pharm Richard Asante to rest today, may the Almighty God grant him rest from his labour.

Rest in Peace in the Bosom of the Lord till we meet again in the afterlife.
Rest well Asante!
Rest well wofa Richard!
Rest well Kwabena!

FROM YOUR WIFE

MRS. MERCY KONADU-ASANTE

"When peace like a river attendeth my way.
When sorrows like seas billows roll
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say
It is well, with my soul".

How can I write your tribute so early when life is steadily getting better?

The journey with you begun way back in year 2000 where the two of us were posted to teach in a small village called Kpobikope. The two of us travelled on our bicycles to impact lives that were put in our hands.

After teaching for two years, one morning during our usual break time, you told me you'll like to go for further studies. My response was that "it was a great decision to better our future". I had to support you in my small capacity through your studies. I waited patiently to see you complete your course. Indeed "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint".

We always encouraged each other to develop and become better in everything we do. Our dream was towards our bright pension and now Papa Surgu where are you?

I cannot believe that I am mourning your mortal remains today. As for Raphael he will always tell his brothers when they are worrying him that "when Daddy comes...." how am I going to explain things to him to get it that you are not coming back soon?

You left us on Monday 18th March, 2024 and you were brought speechless and motionless on Wednesday 20th March, 2024 until you gave up your last breath on Saturday 23rd March, 2024.

Kwabena eiiii! where are you? There is never a dull moment whenever you were around. There is always joy wherever you were. Your popular remark "when God blesses you, you too bless somebody". You have fulfilled this by letting anyone who came your way had a positive impact from you. You provided everything we needed. All we are left with is your memories.

My husband, a father, a confidant, a friend and a brother; where are you to enjoy the fruit of your labour?

Well; I will leave everything to God, who is the great comforter and a consoler. Surgical thank you for the spirit of love and unity you sowed in us. We are so grateful.

Kwabena Konadu, the word of God says, when a good person dies, he becomes an intercessor for others. Be an intercessor for your family you left behind. May your good works find you a resting place in the bosom of your Creator who has called you till we meet again.

Asante; I am bidding you goodbye with your favourite hymn from Bill and Gloria Gaither which we sung together when there were challenged moments.

*'And then one day we'll all cross that river and fight life final war with pain. And then as death give way to victory.
We'll see the light of glory and I will know he reigns. Because Christ lives we can face tomorrow. Because Christ lives all fear is gone!
And now I know; Yes, I know He holds the future.
A life is worth a living just Because Christ lives*

My love, rest well,
Papa Surgy, nante yie,
Richard, ya wo odjogban,
Daddy, nade nyuie.

FROM YOUR CHILDREN

There's nothing sad and painful in this world than watching someone you love so much pass away gradually and not being able to do anything.

On that fateful Wednesday, Mummy asked us to pray fervently because you were in a critical condition. We were hoping to celebrate you back home. Little did we know that a day like this will come.

Daddy, why so early? You were really a great Dad so loving and caring, even for those who are not your biological children. You really had everybody at heart. Truthfulness and humility your rod that guides us. And this is what you have taught us to do. Daddy, we are grateful.

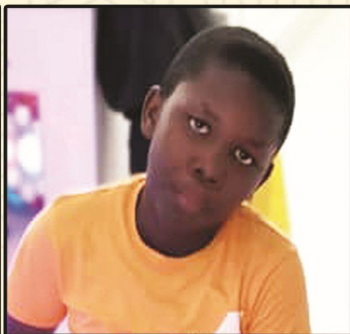

Indeed, our thoughts are not that of the Lord's, neither our ways are his ways. We strongly believe everything happens for a reason and God does not make mistakes. It is sometimes difficult to accept certain decisions of God but He knows best.

Daddy, though we stand here with our heavy hearts, we have the assurance that, because you lived a life that glorified God, your maker is going to give you a wonderful place in paradise to intercede on our behalf.

Daddy, to us, as you always travel, this time is one of the many trips. Until we meet again. We love you and you'll forever remain the best Daddy in our hearts.

Daddy rest well.

Today, we have the honour and privilege of paying glowing tribute to a unique person, late pharm Richard Asante.

Asante, as we affectionately called him accomplished so much in his life time but unfortunately his life was not long enough to enable him fulfill all his dreams.

Asante, you were always there for the family. You toiled so much, cared and shared so much with us. Never did we think you will leave us so soon.

The news of your sudden illness made all of us heart broken. We did all we could to save your precious life until God took you away from us on 23rd March, 2024 at the International Maritime Hospital, Tema.

Asante, when you were born, you became our brother; now that you have departed from us, we pray you become our guardian angel. In christ Jesus, may the Almighty God forgive, accept and grant you a perfect place in His Kingdom until we meet some day. May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace.

As we mourn the loss of such an incredible person, we also celebrate the extraordinary life he lived and the everlasting impact he had on each of our lives. Wofa Richard as affectionately called was a source of unwavering support, kindness, generosity, and unconditional love. We remember his warm smile, his laughter that filled the room, and his ability to make us feel special and loved. He had an incredible ability to connect with each of us on a personal level.

He had a heart of gold and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. His selflessness and compassion touched the lives of many, and his acts of kindness continue to inspire us to this day. Wofa Richard taught us the importance of empathy, reminding us that the smallest acts of kindness can make a world of difference.

He took us to so many places to make us happy when we visited him in Takoradi. We were comfortable around him and that made our stay with him enjoyable. Your memory will forever be engraved in our hearts.

Even though we live far apart, he tried to keep in touch with us all the time. He visited us a few times and that brought us joy and happiness.

Though our hearts ache with the void left by Wofa Richard 's passing, we find solace in knowing that his spirit will forever live on within us.

We will carry his values, his love, and his teachings throughout our lives, ensuring that his legacy continues to inspire generations to come. When our parents informed us about his sickness, we prayed as much as we could for him to be healed, but God knows best.

Rest in eternal peace, dear Wofa Richard.

Wofa, rest well

A Tribute to the unsung Hero of Our Generation – Pharm. Asante Richard

In the summer of 47 BC, after he had won a swift and decisive victory at the Battle of Zela, an elated Julius Caesar retreated to his tent to write a short letter to the Senate of Rome. Not at all wanting to prevaricate on the nature of his victory, Ceasar wrote the now immortal words: “Veni, vidi, vici” – “I came, I saw, I conquered.

These are the words that we believe best describe the life of Pharm. ASANTE RICHARD or RICH, as we referred to him.

As we gather to honour our departed classmate, we celebrate a life that touched our hearts and left an indelible mark. Rich's warrior spirit, exemplary sense of leadership, intelligence and smartness, especially in the field of Science, was manifestly evident and typified a great future hero to his school mates, especially those of us who sat with him in the same classroom at ABETIFI PRESBYTERIAN TEACHER TRAINING COLLEGE, from 1997-2000.

It therefore came as no surprise to us when news got to us that Rich had gained admission into KNUST to read Pharmacy. Indeed, we felt elated for him and gave us motivation that with determination, the sky shall be the platform.

Underneath his calmness and gentle demeanour, he was unequivocally adventurous, daring, and resolute in his convictions.

His intellectual curiosity made him an all-rounder and the kind of person we all wanted to be around.

Rich's infectious character was hard to miss, and his smile always conveyed significant sense of warmth and friendship. For most of us, we have known fewer, better and more decent men than Rich. He was all things to all men, and one could not help but be attracted to his personality.

Though some of us were never as good as he was, he always made time to teach us a thing or two – and this attested to his meekness, selflessness and ready to give spirit.

Words cannot express enough, the sorrow and anger we feel about the passing of our dear Rich. The 23rd day of March, 2024 is forever engraved on our palms, obviously for the bad reason of taking our classmate and friend away without being mindful of the momentous effects on us! We have lost a dear friend, and Ghana has lost a gallant and patriotic son.

Rich, you can trust that we will do everything we can to provide every necessary support to wife, Mercy and your kids.

And let heaven record this in your favour, that you, a man of few words, but friendly, a man of high intellectual prowess but teacher to those in the lower echelon to bring them up; and you were a man of cool demeanour but effective and diligence in the work of his hands. Both Heaven and the Earth recall that you came, you saw, and indeed you conquered.!!!

In the theatre of our memories, our classmate's legacy takes centre stage, reminding us to live each day as if it were our grandest performance.

You are forever in our hearts and minds. Find rest in the bosom of the Lord, Pharm. Asante Richard, Chairman!

Damirifa Due!

Goodbye for now, Richard,
We believe more than ever that someday we will see you again and never let you go.
Rest in peace till we meet again

FROM CLASS OF 2006 (KNUST)

It is with a heavy heart and fond memories that we write this tribute to our beloved classmate, Pharm. Richard Asante. Our paths first crossed in 2002, when we entered the revered halls of the Faculty of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, Kumasi. From the outset, Richard's affable and easy-going nature made him a cherished member of our cohort.

Known to most of us by his popular nickname, "Surgical", Richard's real name remained a mystery to many until our graduation in 2006. This playful anonymity was a testament to his unique charm and the camaraderie we shared during those formative years at the University.

Richard had a clear vision for his future, even during our university days. He aspired to work within the regulatory sector, a path he diligently pursued upon graduation. True to his ambition, Richard joined the Pharmacy Council, where he became an invaluable resource for all of us. Whether it was registration, renewal, or any other regulatory matters, Richard was our go-to person, always ready to lend a helping hand.

Indeed, Richard, or "Surgical" as we fondly remember him, has left behind an indelible legacy. He was not just a resourceful professional, but also a caring individual who cherished his family and friends. His affable nature, combined with his dedication to his chosen field, made him a role model for many of us.

As we remember Richard, we celebrate his life and the positive impact he had on all of us. His legacy will continue to inspire us, reminding us of the importance of friendship, dedication, and service to others. Richard, you will be sorely missed, but your memory will live on in our hearts. Rest in peace, dear friend.

Rest in peace, Surgical, we know you are in a better place, and one day we shall meet again.

The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. ~ Author Unknown

We are profoundly saddened by the demise of Pharm Richard Asante, a staff member of the Pharmacy Council, who passed on Saturday, March 23, 2024, a day when we were hoping for news of his recovery.

It is much easier to mourn in silence; it takes away the worry of not being able to get your words out, or simply finding the right words. But silence or not, one thing we all appreciate today is being here together as one family, sharing in each other's silence and moments of thought for Pharm Richard Asante, whom we all loved as a colleague, friend, loved one, husband, father and relative.

Today, we pay tribute to the extraordinary life and legacy of Pharm Richard Asante, the esteemed Western Regional Manager of the Pharmacy Council. His sudden departure has left a void in our hearts, but his impact on the pharmacy profession and all who had the privilege of knowing him will never be forgotten.

Surgical, as we affectionately called him, joined the Pharmacy Council seventeen years ago as an Inspecting Pharmacist and was posted to the Western Region to assist the then Regional Manager in the day-to-day administration of the office. He performed this role with dedication and passion. It's no surprise that in 2018, he was made the substantive Regional Manager for the Western Region.

He gave so much of himself and made significant contributions to the advancement of the regional office. He was full of practical ideas and solutions, which he generously shared for the benefit of the office, never holding them back.

His commitment to hard work and excellence saw him rise steadily through the ranks to become a Principal Inspecting Pharmacist in 2019.

Having worked extensively in the region for over 16 years, he demonstrated exceptional work ethics, supreme intelligence, and unique ability to bond with all manner of persons. Pharm Asante was a beacon of dedication and discipline in his work. His unwavering commitment to upholding professional standards set him apart as a true leader in the field of pharmacy. His passion for work was evident in every task he undertook, and his meticulous attention to detail inspired all those around him to strive for excellence.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Richard was known for his warm and affable nature. He had a way of making everyone feel welcome and valued, creating a positive and inclusive environment wherever he went. His kind words and infectious smile touched the lives of many, leaving a lasting impression on all who crossed his path.

His general attitude towards work was one of enthusiasm and optimism. He approached every challenge with a sense of purpose and a willingness to go the extra mile to achieve success. His leadership style was characterized by humility, respect, and a genuine desire to see others succeed.

Richard leaves behind a legacy of professionalism, kindness, and dedication that will continue to inspire us all. He will be deeply missed, but his spirit lives on in the countless lives he touched and the positive impact he had on the pharmacy community.

We have gathered here today not just to mourn the loss of Pharm Richard Asante but to celebrate his life and the indelible mark, he left on all of us. His dedication, kindness, and unwavering commitment to excellence have inspired us all. As we move forward, let us carry his legacy in our hearts and continue to strive for the values he upheld.

Though our hearts are heavy, we find solace in the memories we shared with him and the impact he made on our lives. Richard's spirit will live on through the countless lives he touched and the positive changes he brought to the Pharmacy Council and the community at large.

Nonetheless we know that death is inevitable and sometimes sudden, it does not cease to always leave in its trail, pain and grief such as we feel today. We pray that the Good Lord will comfort and strengthen his widow, children and the entire family while granting his soul eternal rest. May the good Lord grant him eternal peace.

Fare thee well, Richard

The Lord keep you till we meet again!!

Rest in perfect peace, Surgical

*Our Bible says in Ecclesiastes 3:1&2 “for everything there is a season and a time for every matter under the sun,...a time to be born and a time to die.”
For in death, there is no remembrance of you...Psalm 6:5*

But today, we honor and celebrate the unwavering dedication and selfless service of the late Mr. Richard Konadu-Asante, a shining example of faith and compassion.

Since joining our local church in 2017, Mr. Richard Konadu-Asante and his family has been a pillar of hope to many members, tirelessly working behind the scenes to spread love, kindness and hope. A virtue worthy of mentioning in this occasion.

presiding over twenty-five churches of the P.C. I first encountered him at one of my training sessions for the leadership of the church when the church was about to be inaugurated from a preaching point into a congregational status. His responses to questions and confidences revealed an adept intellectual capacity and a willingness to support the work of the church. A man of visible sincerity and commitment to the cause of Christ. His valence and generosity was phenomenal to both church and society.

May God keep his warm soul in His assuring bosom and take care of his wife and children left behind. We shall sorely miss him. May His gentle soul rest in peace.
